His mother calls on Sunday evening.

○ Toomas, are you well? Are you eating?

■ Yes. At seven, half past twelve and six.

○ What are the people at work like?

■ Friendly. The new neighbour works with us too.

■ There's a cat at that neighbour's home.

○ A cat? But you are afraid of cats!

■ Only a little, Mum.

○ Eat well. Sleep well. Do not be late.

■ I'm never late.

It's Monday morning. The clock is not running. Toomas is still sleeping.

■ What time is it? Oh! Half past eight!

■ There's no time for breakfast today.

▲ Where is Mr Without Sugar?

● It's ten past nine. Toomas is not here!

■ Hello. I know, I know. I'm late.

■ The clock is not running. My list is at home.

● It's all right. Here is coffee. The meeting is on Thursday.

■ That is right. Thank you very much.

Muri sits on Toomas's desk.

● Why are you afraid of cats?

■ There was a big black cat at Grandma's home.

■ I was five years old. The cat was on my face!

● But Muri is grey. He's a good cat.

■ All right, Muri. Sit here. Do not go on the computer!

● Is there a new list today?

■ Yes. Three clocks. Do not be late. Muri is grey!

It's evening. There are three clocks on the table.
