Translation

■ Hello! Come in. Tea?

○ Yes, please. Thank you.

■ My tea is strong. I'm strong too.

○ Oh! It really is strong.

One whole wall of her living room is covered in old photos.

○ So many photos. Is this your family?

■ Yes. My son and daughter. The woman with long hair is Ella's mother.

○ How old is your son?

■ Fifty. And my daughter is forty-four.

A young man laughing, in an old black-and-white photo.

○ Who is this young man?

■ My husband. In the photo he is twenty.

○ Does he live here too?

■ No. He's no longer with us.

○ My condolences.

- Thank you. He was a good person.
- These are Ella and her younger brother. He's still a baby.
- How old is he in months?
- Six. And Ella is nine years old, almost ten.
- Does your family live in Hamburg?
- Yes. My parents still live there.
- You have a family here too. Us and Nöpö.

Nöpö jumps onto the shelf and knocks down the one photo that faces the wall. For a second you see a boy's face and curly black hair.

- Nöpö! The photo! Who is this boy?
- Nöpö, leave the photo alone! Would you like more tea?

Aino hangs the photo back, face to the wall, and pours you more tea. Nöpö sits on the shelf and looks at you. Who is the boy with the curly black hair?
