

SCENE 29 • NUMBER 7

De weg naar het meer

Plan B is the bus. Thomas is sure it is the number 5. It is not. You get off in a park you have never seen, full of people running and playing football. A tourist asks you the way.

Translation

At the bus stop in front of the station.

■ Plan B: the bus. Number five, from this stop.

○ Are you sure? Number five?

■ Yes. To the lake it's always number five.

Twenty minutes later you get off the bus in a big park.

○ Thomas, this isn't the lake. It's a park!

■ There's no park in plan B.

○ Look how many people! They're running, walking and playing football.

A woman in a red rain jacket with a paper map comes up to you.

▲ Excuse me, where is the station?

○ Sorry, I'm not from here. I'm from Germany, but I live here now.

▲ You speak Dutch very well!

○ Thank you, I'm learning. And where are you from?

▲ From Canada. I'm learning too. How do I get to the station? By bus?

Thomas studies her map for a long time before he answers.

- Anything but the bus! On foot it's twenty minutes. Straight on and then left.

A grey tomcat with a torn ear walks past, tail high.

- Look! That's Max! Far from home!

- A cat? Here? No...

- Let's follow him!

Max leads all three of you through the trees to the lake.

- It's the lake! Max knows the way!

For the first time, Thomas smiles.

- That's not in the plan.

- ▲ Very pretty. But where's the station?

"Sorry, I'm not from here. I'm from ..., but I live here now." Then a grey cat with a torn ear walks past. Max, far from home. You follow him, all three of you, and he leads you to the lake. "This is not in the plan." The tourist still wants the station. You end up on a bench by the lake, Max asleep on Thomas's rucksack.
