Translation

Mihai has many lists.

- On Monday, I wake up at six.
- At quarter past six I shower.
- At seven I eat two eggs and bread.
- At half past seven, tea without sugar at table three.
- At quarter to nine, the office. Never at nine!

On Sunday evening, at seven, the phone rings.

- Good evening, Mihai! Do you eat? Do you sleep?
- Yes, Mum. I eat at seven, half past twelve and six.
- And your colleagues?
- They are nice. The new colleague lives in a house with a cat.
- With a cat? You are afraid of cats!
- No, Mum. Only a little.
- Good night. Do not be late!
- I am never late.

At night, the clock stops at three.

On Monday morning, Mihai still sleeps.

- What time is it? My clock does not work!

The phone shows half past eight.

- No! I am late!

Mihai does not shower or eat.

- ▲ Table three is empty. Where is "Tea without sugar"?

- Good morning, Mihai! You are late!

- I know. My clock does not work. The list is at home.
- Sit down. Here is the coffee. The meeting is on Thursday.
- Thank you. You are a good colleague.

Motan comes onto the desk.

- Why are you afraid of cats?
- When I was five, I was at my grandmother's.
- A big black cat was on my face, in bed!
- On your face? Oh!
- Motan is not black. He can stay here.

In the evening, there are three clocks on the table.

- A new list. One: three clocks. Two: do not be late!
- Three: Motan is grey. He is not bad.
