Translation

■ Come in. The festival is on Saturday. We all need to help.

■ Here's the list.

○ Grandma always has a list. Just like Kong.

▲ A list is good. Then we can relax.

■ Can you cook?

▲ A little. Soup and eggs.

■ And sing?

▲ Unfortunately, no.

● I can. I can play music and sing too.

○ And dance? Can you dance?

▲ Not very well.

▲ Non, you dance better than I do.

Non reads a new notice on the door.

● No trumpet after ten? On Saturday until midnight? What is this?

■ A new house rule.

● Why?

■ Some people have to work in the morning. They need sleep.

▲ Thank you, Grandma Somporn.

▲ I have to get up early tomorrow, so I'm going to bed early today.

● On Saturday too, after midnight?

■ No. Only until midnight.

■ On bakes bread, Non does the music, and Mali sings with the children.

■ Help at the coffee stall too, and keep an eye on Suea.

▲ Suea?

- He really likes the stage.
- Last year he slept on the drum.
- ▲ Then I'd better watch him during the concert.
- ▲ And what is Kong doing?
- He's joining the dance group.
- Kong? But he really can't dance at all.
- ▲ There's no plan for that yet.
- He can learn. It will be good for him.
- Does Kong know yet?
- Not yet.
- ▲ Then I'd better not say anything.

She reads out the jobs. You: the café stand, and the cat's minder. "Somebody must watch him. He likes the stage." Last year he slept on the drum. And ก๊อ? "The dance group. It is good for him." Does he know? Not yet.
