Daily routines and enjoyable activities

Describe a routine with present simple verbs: I get up at half past six, I have a shower, I go to work. British have a shower is a natural everyday phrase.

After like/love/enjoy, an -ing activity is common: I like reading, I love cooking, I enjoy running. Like to read is also possible; enjoy needs the -ing form.

Keep the sequence clear with first, then and after that: First I have a shower. Then I have breakfast. Meals in general usually take no article: have breakfast, have lunch.

Form	Example	Meaning
