Translation

It is the morning of the festival. Jiwoo and the neighbour go to the gift shop.

■ Hello. Are you going to the festival?

○ Yes! Jihun plays this evening.

■ Little Jihun? Come in. I have a story.

Yeongja sits down. She takes off her glasses.

■ I have known Jihun a long time. He was ten then.

■ Have you seen the photo? The window and trumpet.

○ Yes! His hair was really funny!

▲ Did he live at number seven then?

■ Yes. With his parents. In your flat now.

▲ I know. That is Jihun's story.

■ His parents worked a lot. Jihun was alone.

○ And the trumpet? Where did he get it?

■ Ms Choi gave it to him. It was small and old.

○ Grandma's trumpet?

■ Yes. Why did she have it? I do not know. She knows everything.

■ He played under my window every day.

■ At first he could not play well. He played very loudly!

▲ Did you listen every day?

■ Yes. I worked here.

■ Later he played well. There was a festival too.

○ Did he play at the festival?

■ Yes. On the square with the band. It was his first time.

■ There were many people. Jihun was afraid.

■ He played a different song from the band!

■ Then it rained. People went home.

■ Jihun wanted to go home too. His clothes were wet.

○ Where was Grandma?

■ She was in front of the stage. She had an umbrella too.

■ Jihun played again. It was the same song. It was really good.

▲ And the rain?

■ The rain stopped. People came back.

■ Everyone listened. Then everyone sang.

○ Did you sing too?

■ Of course! Ms Choi sang too.

▲ Did his parents come too?

■ They came late. But they heard the last song.

■ Then they bought a big trumpet. It was a present for Jihun.

○ And the small trumpet?

■ At Ms Choi's home. Is it still there? Who knows?

○ Grandma knows! She knows everything!

▲ Will you come this evening?

■ Yes. I will sit beside her. I will take an umbrella too!

○ We will sing too!
