Translation

It is the morning of the festival. Freja and you go to the gift shop.

■ Hello. Are you going to the festival?

○ Yes! Mads plays this evening.

■ Little Mads? Come in. I have a story.

■ I have known Mads a long time. He was ten.

■ Have you seen the photo? The window and trumpet.

○ Yes! His hair was funny!

▲ Did he live in number seven?

■ Yes. With his parents. In your flat.

▲ I know. That is Mads' story.

■ His parents worked a lot. Mads was alone.

○ Where did he get the trumpet?

■ Karen gave it to him. Small and old.

○ Grandma's trumpet?

■ Yes. He played under my window every day.

■ At first he did not play well. But very loudly!

▲ Did you hear him every day?

■ Yes. I worked here.

■ Later he played well. Then there was a town festival.

○ Did he play there?

■ Yes. With the band. For the first time.

■ There were many people. He was afraid.

■ He played a different song from the band!

■ Then it rained. People went home.

○ Where was Grandma?

■ In front of the stage. With an umbrella.

■ Mads played again. The same song. Very beautifully.

▲ And the rain?

■ It stopped. People came back. Everyone sang.

○ Did you sing too?

■ Of course. Karen sang too.

▲ Did his parents come?

■ Late. But they heard the last song.

■ Then they bought him a big trumpet.

○ And the small one?

■ At Karen's. Maybe she still has it.

○ Grandma knows. She knows everything!

▲ Will you come tonight?

■ Yes. I will sit beside Karen. With an umbrella!
