Translation

- Good morning. My report for Saturday. Read it. Just call me Tomaž.
- A report? About the festival?
- Yes. Minute by minute. Listen.
- Twenty hundred: the concert began. Twenty fourteen: the lights went out. Twenty fifteen: something fell.
- What fell?
- I do not know. Twenty sixteen: I screamed.
- Why?
- Something warm touched my leg. In the dark.
- Muri?
- Perhaps. I saw nothing.
- Twenty twenty: the lights came on. End of report.
- What about afterwards?
- I went home. At half past eight.
- Really? Everyone saw you dance. Ana too.

He says it very fast.

- I did not dance. It is not true.

The last line of the report is crossed out, but you can still read it.

- What about the last line? Twenty twenty-five: I danced.

He goes red, and then he smiles.

- A mistake.

- A mistake?

- All right. A lovely mistake.

"Everybody says you danced." "I did not dance." The last line of the report is crossed out, but you can still read it: "20:25: I danced."
