LEARNING GOAL

I can buy food at the market in kilos, bottles and pieces, and ask what it costs.

May = ■ Lena (Lukas) = ○ Barbara = ▲ Mike = ●

■ Here is the market. Saturdays from seven to one. I need ten kilos of apples.

○ Ten kilos? A lot!

- For apple cake. What do you need?
- Tomatoes, potatoes, milk and cheese. Today I'm cooking at home.
- ▲ Good morning. What would you like?
- A kilo of tomatoes and two kilos of potatoes, please.
- ▲ Anything else?
- Half a kilo of cheese and a bottle of milk.
- ▲ Here you are. Twelve pounds and fifty pence.
- Good morning. Do you live in number seven?
- Yes. How do you know?

He unrolls a very long bill.

- Cat hairs on your jacket! Milo comes every Saturday. Here is his bill for this month.
- But he is not mine! So much fish? How much does it all cost?
- Forty-two pounds.

May laughs and takes out her purse.

- You pay nothing. I pay. Every month.
- Why do you pay?

- Milo sits in the café window. People see him and come in. Good for business.

Transport and containers

For a method of travel use by plus the transport word without an article: by train, by bus, by car, by bike. Walking is the fixed phrase on foot.

For a particular vehicle, use a normal noun phrase: on the bus, on the train, in the car. Method and physical position are different patterns.

Review quantities when shopping: a bottle of milk, half a kilo of cheese. A number changes the container word: two bottles of milk.
