Translation

Saturday evening. A voice message from Tonio on your phone.

- Good evening, Tonio here. Here's the plan.
- The 9:12 bus, from the station to Ċirkewwa. Then the ferry, from the second quay.
- Back: the ferry from Mġarr at 17:40.
- Please buy two tickets. I'll come at three minutes to nine.

Sunday, ten to nine, at the ticket window of the bus station.

- Good morning. Two return tickets to Gozo, please.
- ▲ We only have bus tickets, for a single journey. For the ferry, you pay in Mġarr.
- Then two to Ċirkewwa. When does it leave, and from where?
- ▲ At 9:12, from the front. Four euros.
- And when does it come back?
- ▲ Here's the timetable: every half hour, from six until midnight.

At exactly 8:57, Tonio arrives with a rucksack and a thermos.

■ Good morning. It's exactly three minutes to nine.

○ Here are the tickets.

■ Very good. You're not late today!

An announcement echoes through the station.

▲ Attention! The 9:12 bus is cancelled today.

○ Cancelled? What does that mean?

Tonio freezes.

■ It means there's no bus.

○ And what do we do now?

He takes a second list out of his pocket.

■ Plan B.

○ You have a plan B?

■ I always have a plan B.

An announcement: the 9:12 bus to Ċirkewwa is cancelled today. Tonio freezes. Then he takes out a second list. "Plan B."
