Translation

Monday evening in the courtyard. Everyone crowds round the phone.

- Is everyone here? Good. First photo!
- There's the band. And Jonas with the little trumpet.
- ▲ And there, on the drum... Who's that?
- Micius! On the drum!

Tomas looks worried.

- And me? Am I in them too?
- Next photo. Ten past eight. Micius at Jonas's feet.
- △ That can't be. Micius was at home.

Next photo, 20:14: Micius is sitting on the big light switch at the side of the stage.

- Grandma, look.
- Twenty fourteen! He sat down on the switch!
- So it was Micius who turned the lights off!

A flash photo from the blackout. Behind Micius, the big drum lies on its side.

- And Mum took this photo in the dark.
- ▲ My mouthpiece! In his mouth!
- And the drum! That's what fell!
- And here... Tomas. With my cake!
- I was hungry. And I only danced a little.
- △ I saw it. He danced very nicely.

Micius yawns.

- Grandma! You were asleep!

She gives you a print: you at the café stall in the old raincoat, with Micius on the counter.

- And this one is for you. The best photo.
- Me, the café stall and Micius. Thank you, Elzé!
- I'll write to my friend Anna about the festival.

That night you write a postcard.

- 'Dear Anna! On Saturday there was the town festival here.'
- 'The lights went out, the cat stole a mouthpiece, and my colleague danced.'

- 'I worked at the café stall. It was great fun.'
- 'Tomorrow I'll buy a stamp. Bye! Yours, Lena'

On every photo, Micius is on stage: on the drum, next to Jonas, sitting on the light switch at 20:14, and, in the flash during the blackout, with the mouthpiece in his mouth. On one photo Tomas dances with a piece of poppy-seed cake. Micius yawns. Elzè gives you a print of the best one: you, the stand and the cat. That night you write a postcard to Anna. Next morning you buy a stamp at the post office and send it to the capital; Micius waits for you on the post office steps.
