Translation

■ Good day! Come in, come in. Some tea?

○ Yes, thank you.

■ My tea is black and strong. Like me!

○ Oh! Very strong!

One whole wall of her living room is covered in old photos.

○ So many photos! Is this your family?

■ Yes, my whole family. This is my son. And this is my daughter, Lili's mother.

○ How old is your son?

■ My son is fifty, my daughter forty-four.

A young man laughing, in an old black-and-white photo.

○ And who's this? So young!

■ My husband. He's twenty in this one.

○ And where is he now?

■ He's no longer with us.

○ I'm so sorry.

- Thank you. He was a very good man.
- And here are Lili and her younger brother. He's still a baby.
- How old is he?
- Only six months. And Lili is nine, almost ten.
- Your family is far away, in Germany, isn't it?
- Yes. Very far.
- But you have a family here too. The house, Lili... and Cirmi.

Cirmi jumps onto the shelf and knocks down the one photo that faces the wall. For a second you see a boy's face and curly black hair.

- Oops! And who's that boy?
- No. Not that one.
- More tea?

Ilona hangs the photo back, face to the wall, and pours you more tea. Cirmi sits on the shelf and looks at you. Who is the boy with the curly black hair?
