

SCENE 26 • NUMBER 7

Três estações

Saturday morning. Tomás has invited you to the lake tomorrow, by train.

Where is the station? Outside number 7 you ask the way: Maria, Rita, and João, just home from a night of jazz. Three neighbours, three answers.

Translation

■ Good morning, Mrs Silva! Excuse me, where is the station?

○ The station? And why do you need the station?

■ Tomorrow Tomás and I are going to the lake by train.

○ I know, I know. I know everything.

○ The station is far. First street on the left, then straight on, then the second street on the right.

Rita comes out of the café with a tray.

▲ No, no! The station is close. Right, then left at the corner.

■ Close? Mrs Silva says it's far.

▲ For Maria, everything is far.

○ I can hear everything!

João comes home with his trumpet case, after a night of jazz.

● Good night... No, good morning.

■ João, where is the station?

● The station? Straight on, by the river. Five minutes on foot.

■ Three neighbours, three ways!

- My station is the train station. It's far.
- ▲ And mine is the bus station. It's close.
- And mine is the Old Station. I play there at weekends.
- I need the train station. So, left?
- Left. And don't be late tomorrow!

All three are right. The town has a train station, a bus station, and the Old Station, which is now a jazz bar. João plays there at weekends. You take Maria's way, and around the corner stands the train station, small and old, with a big clock.
