Places and possessive words

Ask about a place with Where is ...?: Where is the café? A pronoun replaces the place noun in the reply: It's downstairs. Use he for Jack, she for May and usually it for a thing.

Possessive words go before a noun: my, your, his, her, its, our, their. They refer to the owner: his café, her key.

For being inside a place use in: in the café. Use on for a surface: on the table. Upstairs, downstairs, here and there can stand alone without a preposition.
