LEARNING GOAL

I can say where places are on a map and explain the way.

Nicky = ■ Anne = ○ Lena (Lukas) = ▲

- Hello! Grandma tells me everything. The lake, Milo ...
- Of course. I know everything.
- Here is a gift. My map of Millbrook!
- This is number seven on Mill Street. May's café is downstairs.

▲ What is by the park?

■ My school. Opposite.

▲ Where is the post office? I have to send a letter.

■ Between the bank and the pharmacy. The supermarket is next to the station, on the corner.

○ Tell us the way to the post office.

▲ First right, then straight on and left at the second street.
Between the bank and the pharmacy.

○ Very good. Now you know the way.

■ Milo likes the market, the café window, the park bench and the lake.

▲ What is the red cross on the roof? And the little key?

■ Milo's secret.

▲ What sort of secret?

■ That is the secret!

○ Who would like tea?

▲ Me, please. One cup.

Locating places and objects

Common place prepositions include in, on, under, behind, in front of, next to, opposite and between. The following noun keeps its ordinary English form.

Between often links two places: between the bank and the chemist's. Opposite the school means across from it. British chemist's is an everyday word for a pharmacy.

Keep articles in a particular place phrase: behind the computer, on the bench. Direction words such as upstairs and outside can stand on their own.

Form	Example	Meaning
between	The post office is between the bank and the chemist's.	Locate it in the space separating the two places.
opposite	The school is opposite the bank.	Say the school is across from the bank.
behind	Milo is behind the computer.	Say Milo is at the back of the computer.
under	The key is under the table.	Say the key is below the table.

Form	Example	Meaning
of	Anne is in front of the house.	Complete the place preposition.
upstairs	Jack is upstairs.	Say Jack is on a higher floor.

The post office is between the bank and the chemist's.

Locate it in the space separating the two places.

The school is opposite the bank.

Say the school is across from the bank.

Milo is behind the computer.
