

SCENE 47 • NUMBER 7

Razgovor

The capital: big, loud, grey. The interviewer wants to know everything: who you are, where you are from, which languages you speak, what you can do, why you came to the town, when you can start. On the train back, you read flat ads: thirty square metres, €950 a month.

Translation

■ Good morning. I am Lucija. Please sit. I have lived in Ljubljana for ten years. Shall we speak Slovene?

■ Tell me something about yourself. Where are you from?

○ Lena Becker. I am thirty years old. I am from Hamburg. I am an engineer. I now work at a furniture company in Brezovec.

She laughs.

■ Which languages do you speak? What do you do at work?

○ German and Slovene. I design furniture. Sometimes I look after a cat.

■ A cat? Interesting! You speak good Slovene.

○ A long story.

She stands up and holds out her hand.

■ Why did you move to Brezovec?

○ For work. Now I like the people there too.

■ When can you start?

○ After the thirtieth of June.

■ Good. We offer you the position from the first of July.

○ Thank you. May I think it over?

■ Of course. Answer by Friday.

Outside the office, a grey cat sits on a wall. It is not Muri.

○ Muri? No. Another cat. An ad: flat in the centre, thirty square metres, nine hundred and fifty euros a month.

○ Expensive rent. And no Muri. Perhaps I would rather stay in Brezovec.

They offer you the job on the spot. Outside, a grey cat sits on a wall. It is not Muri. And you notice that you want to go home, and that home now means number 7.
