Translation

■ Come in. Where does it hurt?

You don't know the word, so you point at your throat.

○ Here. What is it in Armenian?

■ Throat. When did it start?

☐ On Saturday. We were out in the rain.

■ Open your mouth. Say “ah”.

☐ Ah.

■ Now breathe deeply. Does your back hurt?

☐ No. My ear hurts a little.

She takes your temperature.

■ Your temperature is a little high. How many hours do you sleep?

☐ Few. There is a trumpet upstairs.

She sighs.

■ Aram's trumpet? I know.

■ You are not very ill. You are tired. And hungry.

☐ Ani says the same thing about Mrru.

■ She is a good doctor.

■ Sleep a lot. Drink water. Tea three times a day.

■ Eat fruit and vegetables. Here is the medicine for your throat.

☐ And the festival?

■ Rest until Saturday. Then we will see.

She listens, looks, and smiles. "You are not very sick. You are tired. And hungry." It is what Ալի said about the cat on your first morning. Her prescription: sleep, tea, and no trumpet after ten at night. For once you like a prescription.
