Translation

■ Good morning! May I come in?

○ Good morning, Mrs Sari! Yes, please come in.

She holds up a pen and a printed form.

■ Here's a form. Every new neighbour fills in a form.

○ A form? Now?

■ Yes, yes, now. It'll be quick!

She reads out the whole form in one breath.

Now she speaks very, very slowly.

■ Name, surname, where are you from, what languages do you speak, what do you do?

○ Sorry, I don't understand. Could you speak more slowly?

■ All right... Sur-name?

○ My surname is Becker.

■ Letter by letter, please.

○ B, E, C, K, E, R.

■ Once more, please. Slowly.

○ B, E, C, K, E, R.

■ And where are you from?

○ I'm from Germany, from Hamburg.

She is delighted, and talks even faster.

■ Which languages do you speak?

○ German and English. And a little Indonesian.

■ Indonesian? You speak Indonesian! Very, very good!

○ Only a little! And more slowly, please!

■ All right, all right. And what do you do?

○ I... How do you say this word in Indonesian?

■ An engineer. I know.

From her cardigan pocket she takes a small brass name plate for your letterbox.

■ Here. This is for you.

○ My surname! But... you already know everything!

○ So what's the form for?

She holds out a small brass name plate for your letterbox. Your surname is on it, already spelled right. The form under her arm is still empty.
