

SCENE 47 • NUMBER 7

Intervjun

The capital: big, loud, grey. The interviewer wants to know everything: who you are, where you are from, which languages you speak, what you can do, why you came to the town, when you can start. On the train back, you read flat ads: thirty square metres, nine thousand five hundred kronor a month.

Translation

- Good morning. I am Sara. Please sit down.
- I have lived in Stockholm for ten years. Shall we speak Swedish?
- Tell me a little about yourself. Where are you from?
- I am Lena Becker, thirty years old, from Hamburg.
- I am an engineer. I now work at a furniture company in Björkby.

She laughs.

- Which languages do you speak?
- German and Swedish.
- Your Swedish is easy to understand.
- What do you do at work?
- I design furniture. Sometimes I look after a tomcat too.
- A tomcat? That sounds interesting!
- It is a long story.

She stands up and holds out her hand.

- Why did you move to Björkby?
- For work. Now I like the people there very much too.

- When can you start here?
- My trial period ends on the thirtieth of June. After that it would be possible.
- Good. We would like to offer you the position from the first of July.
- Thank you very much. May I think it over?
- Of course. Please let us know by Friday.

Outside the office, a grey cat sits on a wall. It is not Måns.

- Måns? No. Just another cat.
- Flat in the centre. Thirty square metres. nine thousand five hundred kronor a month.
- That much rent. No Måns either. Perhaps I would rather stay in Björkby.

They offer you the job on the spot. Outside, a grey cat sits on a wall. It is not Måns. And you notice that you want to go home, and that home now means number 7.
