Translation

Saturday evening. A voice message from Toms on your phone.

- Good evening. It's Toms. Here's the plan.
- The train at 9:12, from platform two. Back at 17:40.
- Please buy two return tickets. I'm coming to the station at three minutes to nine.

Sunday, ten to nine, at the ticket window.

- Good morning. Two tickets to the lake, please.
- ▲ One way or return?
- Return. When does the train leave, and from which platform?
- ▲ At 9:12, from platform two. Two tickets are twenty-four euros.
- And when does the train come back?
- ▲ Here's the timetable. Back at 17:40.

At exactly 8:57, Toms arrives with a rucksack and a thermos.

- Good morning. It's exactly three minutes to nine.
- Here are the tickets. Two returns.
- Very good. You're not late today!

An announcement echoes through the station.

▲ Attention please! The 9:12 train to Long Lake is cancelled today.

○ Cancelled? What does that mean?

Toms freezes.

■ It means there is no train.

○ And what do we do now?

He takes a second list out of his pocket.

■ Plan B.

○ You have a plan B?

■ I always have a plan B.

An announcement: the 9:12 to the lake is cancelled today. Toms freezes. Then he takes out a second list. "Plan B."
