Translation

■ Excuse me. Where is the station?

○ Why the station?

■ Tomorrow I am going to the lake with Rohan. By train.

○ I know. The station is far. First street left. Then straight. Second street right.

Radha comes out of the café with a tray.

▲ No, it is near. Right, then left at the corner.

■ Kamala says it is far.

▲ Everything is far for her.

○ I hear everything.

Arjun comes home with his trumpet case, after a night of jazz.

● Good night... No, hello.

■ Arjun, where is the station?

● Straight on, by the river. Five minutes on foot.

■ Three neighbours. Three routes.

○ My station is the railway station. It is far.

▲ Mine is the bus station. It is near.

● Mine is the Old Station. I play music there.

■ I need the railway station. So left?

All three are right. The town has a train station, a bus station, and the Old Station, which is now a jazz bar. अर्जुन plays there at weekends. You take कमला's way, and around the corner stands the train station, small and old, with a big clock.
