Translation

- Good morning. I've written a report. About Saturday.
- A report? About the festival?
- Yes. Minute by minute. I always write reports, even about festivals.
- Listen.
- '20:00: the concert started.'
- '20:14: the lights went out.'
- '20:15: a noise. Something fell.'
- Something fell? What?
- I don't know. '20:16: I screamed.'
- You screamed? Why?
- Something warm and soft touched my leg. In the dark!
- Warm and soft? Maybe it was Miko?
- I don't know. I didn't see anything. It was dark.
- '20:20: the lights came back on.' And that's all.
- That's all? And what happened after that?

He says it very fast.

■ Nothing. I went home. At 20:30 exactly.

○ Really? Everybody says you danced.

■ I did not dance.

○ Mrs Sari says you danced very nicely.

■ Mrs Sari is wrong.

The last line of the report is crossed out, but you can still read it.

○ And here? The last line?

○ '20:25: I danced.'

He goes red, and then he smiles.

■ That's... a mistake.

○ A mistake?

■ A very good mistake.

"Everybody says you danced." "I did not dance." The last line of the report is crossed out, but you can still read it: "20:25: I danced."
