

SCENE 42 • NUMBER 7

Was hast du gesehen?

Sunday morning. The whole café is talking about last night. Greta saw a shadow on the stage, a ghost. The trumpet played on in the dark, better than ever. And when the lights came back, her poppy-seed cake was gone from the stand.

Translation

■ Good morning! Have you heard yet? Everyone is talking about last night.

○ A coffee first, please. Nothing else.

Only Greta's hands: she sets a pancake and a coffee on the table, with a look that allows no argument.

■ And a pancake. After an evening like that you need one.

○ Yes, what an evening! Suddenly the lights went out. Everything dark.

■ And something small came onto the stage. I saw it.

○ Something small? What was it?

■ With a tail. Definitely a ghost.

○ A ghost with a tail?

■ Yes. And Jonas kept playing. So beautifully! Right in the darkness.

○ With Hilde's old trumpet. I heard it too.

■ Hilde's trumpet? Oh, I did not know that.

■ Then the lights came back on. And a piece of poppy-seed cake was missing.

☐ One piece or the whole cake?

☒ One piece. But a very big one!

☐ The ghost too?

☒ But ghosts do not eat poppy-seed cake.

☐ Very strange.

☒ And Mikesch? You were supposed to keep an eye on him.

☐ Yes. Well ...

☐ In the dark I went out into the square and looked for him. But I did not find him.

☒ Where did he stay all evening?

"And the cat? He was with you. You looked after him." You open your mouth. You have no idea where the cat was.
