Translation

■ Good morning! Come in, come in. There's one more page in the form!

○ One more? But you already know everything!

■ Not everything. I don't know your phone number.

On her sideboard stands a red lamp, exactly like the one in your bathroom.

○ Oh! A red lamp. Just like mine!

■ What lamp? Sit down, please!

She taps the first box on the page.

■ So, how many keys do you have?

○ Zero. Micius has my key again.

■ Again? And where's the key now?

○ I don't know. Not in the wardrobe. The wardrobe's empty now!

She writes it down.

■ I see. Micius has ten keys, and you have zero. Now your number, please!

○ Zero, six, one, two...

She writes as you speak.

- Zero, six, one, five...
- Not five, two! Zero, six, one, two.
- All right, all right. And?
- Four, seven, zero, three, nine.
- Four, seven, zero, three, six.
- Not six! Nine. Ni-i-ine!
- Zero, six, one, two, four, seven, zero, three, nine. Right?
- Yes, yes! Thank you.

She underlines the number, and at that very second...

Your phone rings.

- ▲ Good morning, it's Rūta! The coffee is already on the table. Are you coming?
- I'm coming! But... how do you know my number?

Ona looks innocently out of the window towards the café, humming. Who gave Rūta your number? Certainly not her.
