

SCENE 29 • NUMBER 7

Plan B

Plan B is the bus. Thomas is sure it is the number 5. It is not. You get off in a park you have never seen, full of people running and playing football. A tourist asks you the way.

Translation

■ Plan B. We take the bus. Number five, from here.

○ Are you sure? It goes to the Great Lake?

■ Absolutely sure. It is on my list.

Twenty minutes later you get off the bus in a big park.

○ Thomas, this is a park. There is no lake here.

■ A park? There is no park on my list.

○ But the park is lovely. People are walking and playing football.

A woman in a red rain jacket with a paper map comes up to you.

▲ Excuse me. Can you help me? I am looking for the station.

○ I am new here too. My hometown is Hamburg.

▲ You speak good Danish.

○ Thank you. Where are you from?

▲ Canada. I am learning Danish too. Is there a bus to the station from here?

■ Better not take a bus! Twenty minutes on foot. Straight on, then left.

A grey tomcat with a torn ear walks past, tail high.

○ Look! Findus! What is he doing here?

■ A cat? Here too?

○ Come on. Let us follow Findus.

Findus leads all three of you through the trees to the lake.

○ The Great Lake! Findus knows the way.

■ That is not on my list.

▲ Beautiful. But I am still looking for the station.

"Sorry, I'm not from here. I'm from ..., but I live here now." Then a grey cat with a torn ear walks past. Findus, far from home. You follow him, all three of you, and he leads you to the lake. "This is not in the plan." The tourist still wants the station. You end up on a bench by the lake, Findus asleep on Thomas's rucksack.
