

SCENE 18 • NUMBER 7

Una llamada de Ana

Ana, your friend from Hamburg, calls from her new home in Madrid. She asks about the flat, the town and your neighbours. Describing Javier's hair helps you recognise the boy in Elvira's photograph.

Translation

The mobile rings. It is Ana, your friend from Hamburg.

■ Hello! How is it going in Valdemora?

○ Ana! Very well, thank you. And you?

■ Well. I have a new job in Madrid.

○ In Madrid? You are not so far away.

■ What is your flat like?

*Through the bathroom door: a yellow sofa next to the bathtub.
The phone lies on the table.*

○ Small, but nice. And there is a yellow sofa in the bathroom.

■ In the bathroom? Why?

○ It is a very long story.

■ Do you like the town? Is it big?

○ No. It is small and old, but very pretty. It is beside a river.

○ There is a café below my flat. There is a different cake every morning.

She laughs.

■ You and your cakes!

■ And the neighbours? Are they nice?

○ Mrs Martín is short, wears glasses and knows everything.

■ Everything?

○ Everything. I am sure she knows your phone number.

○ Clara has the café. She always says: First, time to eat!

■ Who else lives in the house?

○ Javier, a musician. He is tall and has brown eyes and black curly hair.

A memory of the old photo, face up on the carpet: a boy of ten with brown eyes and a mop of black curly hair.

○ Black curly hair... One moment!

■ Hello? Are you still there?

○ The boy in the photo! Sorry, Ana. We will talk later.

You put the phone down and look up at the ceiling. Upstairs, Javier starts to play. Curly black hair... Is Javier the boy in the photo?
