Spanish

Give the details in a useful order

Say the room type, dates and number of nights: Una habitación individual, de domingo a lunes, una noche. Doble describes a room for two. Quiero reservar... is a natural request with the infinitive unchanged.

Check what you are buying

¿Incluye el desayuno? asks whether breakfast is included. ¿Cuánto cuesta por noche? checks the nightly price. ¿A nombre de quién? asks the booking name. Listen for de siete a diez when breakfast hours are given.

Numbers in practical details

Cien is 100; ciento cuarenta, 140. Hundreds change for a feminine counted noun: doscientos euros, doscientas personas. Prices use masculine euros: novecientos cincuenta euros. You do not need to recite every number to confirm the actual booking.
