Translation

■ Good morning. Come in. There is another page of the form.

○ Another? But you know everything.

■ Not everything. Your telephone number is missing.

Closer on the sideboard: a lamp with a red shade and a red base.

☐ The red lamp! There is one just like it in my bathroom.

■ What lamp? The form first.

■ How many keys do you have?

☐ Zero. Michi has my key again.

■ Where is it now?

☐ I do not know. The wardrobe is empty.

■ Michi has ten and you have zero. Now, your number.

☐ Six, one, two.

Elvira sits at the table with her glasses on and writes on the form.

■ Six, one, three.

☐ No, two. Six, one, two.

■ Good. And then?

☐ Three, four, five, seven, eight, nine.

■ Eight, six?

☐ No. The last one is nine.

■ Six, one, two, three, four, five, seven, eight, nine. Yes?

☐ Yes, exactly.

The mobile rings.

▲ Good morning! I am Clara. Your coffee is ready. Are you coming?

○ Yes! But how does she know my number?

Elvira looks innocently out of the window towards the café, humming. Who gave Clara your number? Certainly not her.
