Translation

It's morning. The house is quiet.

- Good morning, Muri. Are you hungry?
- Here you are. But you are not my cat!

Muri eats. Then he goes to the café.

- Hello, Muri. Are you the boss here?
- Coffee or tea?

Muri looks at the cake.

○ No! The cake is not for you!

Muri is gone. And the cake?

○ Muri! Where are you?

▲ Muri, we are friends!

▲ Grandma, is Muri your cat?

■ No. He isn't mine.

▲ Whose is he? Jaan's?

■ He isn't Jaan's either.

▲ Where does he live?

■ Here and there. Upstairs, downstairs, at the café.

It's evening. You come home. There's no key.

● Oh! Where is my key?

● Mrs Tamm, do you have my key?

■ No. What about Muri?

● Jaan, is Muri here?

□ Yes. He sleeps in the living room.

There's a box behind the sofa. There are keys inside it.

● What is this? A key! And another key!

□ This one is mine. This one is Mari's.

● My key is here too! Muri!

Muri is not sleeping. He's very pleased.

□ This is Muri's home too.

● All right, Muri. You're the boss.

● But the key is mine!

■ And the house is mine!

▲ Muri is my friend.

○ And the cake is mine!

It's night. The house is quiet.

● Good night, Muri. Good night, everyone.
