Translation

Ona opens her door and waves you into her living room.

■ Good day! Come in, come in. Some tea?

○ Yes, thank you.

■ My tea is black and strong. Like me!

You take a sip.

○ Oh! Very strong!

One whole wall of her living room is covered in old photos.

○ So many photos! Is this your family?

■ Yes, my whole family. This is my son. And this is my daughter, Elzė's mother.

○ How old is your son?

■ My son is fifty, my daughter forty-four.

A young man laughing, in an old black-and-white photo.

○ And who's this? So young!

■ My husband. He's twenty in this one.

○ And where is he now?

She says it quietly.

■ He's no longer with us.

○ I'm so sorry.

■ Thank you. He was a very good man.

■ And this is Elzé and her brother. He's still a baby.

○ How old is he?

■ Only six months. And Elzé is nine, almost ten.

■ Your family is far away, in Germany, isn't it?

○ Yes. Very far.

■ But you have a family here too. The house, Elzé... and Micius.

Micius jumps onto the shelf and knocks down the one photo that faces the wall. For a second you see a boy's face and curly black hair.

○ Oops! And who's that boy?

She hangs it back quickly, face to the wall.

■ No. Not that one.

■ More tea?

Ona hangs the photo back, face to the wall, and pours you more tea. Micius sits on the shelf and looks at you. Who is the boy with the curly black hair?
