Events in the past

Use kemarin for yesterday and tadi for earlier today or a recently mentioned earlier time. Verbs do not acquire a past ending:

Kemarin saya melihat Miko.

Sudah signals completion or a state already true; it is not an obligatory past tense. Belum means not yet, so belum melihat differs from an ordinary tidak melihat denial.

Melihat and mendengar are the normal words for see and hear; learn these common prefixed forms as words. Keep a clear time phrase when retelling events.

Pattern	Example	Meaning
Kemarin	Kemarin ada festival.	There was a festival yesterday.
