Evening in your flat. Your phone rings on the table.

Your phone rings. It's Anna, your friend from Hamburg.

■ Hi! How are you? Let's speak Lithuanian! I'm learning Lithuanian now too!

○ Anna! Fine, thanks. But why are you learning Lithuanian?

■ Because I've got a new job. I live in Vilnius now!

○ In Vilnius? That's not far!

■ So, what's your flat like?

You look over at the bathroom door.

○ Small but nice. And there's a yellow sofa in the bathroom.

■ A sofa? In the bathroom? Why?

○ It's a long story.

■ And the town? Is it big?

○ No, small and old, but very pretty. By a river.

○ And there's a café downstairs. A new cake every morning!

Anna laughs.

- You and your cakes!
- And the neighbours? What are they like?
- Mrs Ona is small and old, with glasses. And she knows everything.
- Everything?
- Everything. Even my phone number.
- And Rūta has the café. She always says: 'Eat!'
- And who else?
- Jonas, a musician. He lives upstairs. Tall, brown eyes, curly black hair...

You stop. You think of the photo on Ona's wall.

- Wait... Curly black hair...
- Hello? Are you still there?
- The boy in the photo! Sorry, Anna! Bye!

You put the phone down and look up at the ceiling. Upstairs, Jonas starts to play. Curly black hair... Is Jonas the boy in the photo?
