Daily routine and free time

Describe a routine with a time phrase and an unchanged verb:

Saya bangun setengah tujuh. Mandi already means bathe/shower; no reflexive pronoun is required.

Use suka before a thing or activity: suka membaca, suka memasak.

Tidak suka expresses dislike.

Verbs such as membaca, memasak and berlari are learned in their normal forms. Short conversational baca, masak, lari also appear. A prefix does not indicate tense or person; no full derivation system is required here.
