Translation

■ Good afternoon. Doctor Freja. It is your turn now.

○ Good afternoon, Doctor.

■ This is Findus, my nurse.

○ Are you a doctor already?

■ Not yet. I am practising. Mum is a doctor.

■ Where does it hurt?

She checks her toy thermometer.

She looks into your mouth very seriously with a toy torch.

○ My throat. But it is better already.

■ Open your mouth. Say ah.

○ Aaah.

■ Good. No fever.

○ Is that good?

■ Very good.

■ How long do you sleep now?

○ Twelve hours. With earplugs, from Mads.

- Twelve! Almost as long as Findus.

She writes on a page of her notebook, the tip of her tongue between her teeth, and reads it out.

- Here is my prescription.

- First: pancakes. Second: Findus on your legs.

- And on Saturday you come to the festival.

- But Thomas says: no cats in bed!

- My prescription is more important than his list.

Karen comes in with a big plate of pancakes.

- ▲ Here are the pancakes, exactly as prescribed.

- Thank you, Karen. And thank you, Doctor.

- ▲ May the patient eat now, Doctor?

- Yes. Three pancakes. No more.

- That is all. Goodbye!

Her prescription: "Pancakes, three times a day. Cat on feet.

Festival: Saturday. YOU MUST COME." Karen brings the pancakes. Next morning you feel better. The toy thermometer is gone.
