

SCENE 13 • NUMBER 7

Meja tiga

Early morning in the café. At the same minute every day, a neat man in a blue shirt comes in and walks to the table by the window. Rina nods at him and whispers. His usual order is tea without sugar, one bread roll and the bill. You copy that order exactly; coffee is mentioned only while asking about the menu prices.

Translation

■ Look: table number three. That gentleman is here every morning.

○ And table number one?

■ In your kitchen.

He checks under the table, sits down and orders without a look at the menu.

▲ One tea without sugar, one roll and the bill, please.

■ Yes, sir.

○ Can I have the menu?

■ Here you are. The prices are here, at the bottom.

○ Sorry, I don't understand. How much is a coffee?

■ Coffee is twenty-three thousand rupiah. Tea fifteen thousand, a roll six thousand, cake thirty-five thousand.

○ All right. I'd like to order.

○ One tea without sugar, one roll and the bill, please.

■ The bill? Already? You don't have anything yet!

■ All right. Tea and a roll: twenty-one thousand rupiah.

Miko jumps onto the man's table and grabs his pen.

He climbs up onto his chair.

He drops the exact money on the table and hurries to the door.

▲ A cat! No, no, no!

▲ The bill! Quickly, please!

■ Twenty-one thousand rupiah, sir.

▲ Here's the money. Goodbye!

■ He's very, very afraid of cats.

○ What's his name?

■ I don't know. "Tea without sugar": that's his name.

○ And his pen?

■ The pen? It's Miko's now.

Under table 3, Miko lies on his back with the pen between his paws. On the table: the exact amount of money.
