Stella = ■ Nicky = ○ Lena (Lukas) = ▲

The morning before the festival. Nicky and the neighbour come to the shop.

- Hello. Are you two going to the festival?
- Yes! Jack plays tonight.
- Little Jack? Come in, both of you. I have a story.

■ I have known him a long time. He was ten then.

■ Have you two seen the photo? The window and trumpet?

○ Yes! Funny hair!

▲ Did he live at number seven?

■ Yes. With his parents. In your flat.

▲ I know. Jack's story.

■ His parents worked a lot. Jack was alone.

○ Where did the trumpet come from?

■ Anne gave it to him. It was small and old.

○ Grandma's trumpet?

■ Yes. Why did she have it? I don't know.

■ He played under my window every day.

■ At first he could not play well. It was very loud!

▲ Did you listen every day?

■ Yes. I worked here. Later he played well.

○ Did he play at the festival too?

■ Yes. For the first time. In the square with the band.

■ Lots of people. He was afraid. He played a different song from the band!

■ Then it rained. People went home.

○ Jack too?

■ He wanted to. He was wet.

○ Where was Grandma?

■ In front of the stage. With an umbrella.

■ Jack played the same song again. Very well.

▲ What about the rain?

■ It stopped. People came back. They listened. Then they sang.

○ You too?

■ Of course. Anne too.

▲ Did his parents come too?

■ Late. They heard the last song. Then they bought a big trumpet for Jack.

○ What about the little one?

■ At Anne's home. Is it still there? Who knows?

○ Grandma knows. She knows everything!

▲ Will you come tonight?

■ Yes. I'll sit beside her. With an umbrella!

○ We'll sing too!
