

SCENE 18 • NUMBER 7

Anna is calling

Your phone rings: Anna. She's learning English too, because she has a new job in the capital, not far from you. And she wants to know everything: your flat, the town, the neighbours. You describe Jack: tall, brown eyes, curly black hair... and stop. The boy in the photo.

LEARNING GOAL

I can say how I am on the phone, describe my flat and my town, and describe what people look like.

Anna = ■ Lena (Lukas) = ○

The phone rings. Anna from Hamburg is calling.

■ Hello! How are things in Millbrook?

○ Anna! Fine, thank you. And with you?

■ Fine too. I have a new job in London.

○ In London? Then you are not far away.

■ What is the flat like?

You look over at the bathroom door.

○ Small, but nice. There's a yellow sofa in the bathroom.

■ In the bathroom? Why?

○ A long story.

■ What is the town like?

○ A small old town with a river. There's a café downstairs. A different cake every day.

■ You really do love cake!

■ What are the neighbours like?

○ Anne is short, wears glasses and knows everything. Probably your number too.

■ Everything?

○ Everything. May owns the café. She always gives me food.

■ Who else lives there?

You stop. You think of the photo on Anne's wall.

○ Jack. A musician. He's tall. He has brown eyes and black curly hair. Wait! The boy in the photo!

■ Hello? Are you still there?

○ Sorry, Anna. I'll call later!

Describing someone's appearance

Use have got/has got for appearance: Jack has got brown eyes, Anne has got glasses. With I/you/we/they, use have; with he/she/it, use has.

Head hair is normally uncountable: long hair, black curly hair.

Individual hairs are countable: a grey hair on the jacket. Eyes and glasses are plural.

For a characteristic use be and an adjective: Jack is tall, Anne is short. English adjectives do not change with the person's sex or a plural subject.

Form	Example	Meaning
has	Jack has got brown eyes.	Describe Jack's eyes.
have	I have got long hair.	Describe your hair.
hair	Jack has got black hair.	Describe hair as an uncountable amount.
