Translation

■ Wet again?

○ There was a storm at the market. My clothes are completely wet. My shoes too.

■ And your umbrella?

○ It is at the office. The sun was shining this morning.

■ The sun does not stay all day.

■ And the yellow jacket?

○ It is wet too. It is warm, but rain gets in.

■ Then you need a raincoat for our April weather.

She goes to the cupboard on the landing and comes back with an old green raincoat.

■ Wait here.

■ My raincoat. Green and old, but still good. Put it on.

○ Dry. And nice and warm.

■ It suits you. Better than the yellow jacket.

○ Thank you. How old is it?

■ Forty years. Older than you!

You read the old paper label on it.

○ There is something in the pocket. A key. Quite heavy.

○ It says attic. Is this the attic key?

■ Yes. Keep it.

○ Me? Why?

■ You are part of number seven now.

○ What is up there?

■ Old things. Very many old things.

○ Achoo!

■ Off to bed. I will make you tea.

○ But the rehearsal is tomorrow.

■ You do not have to come tomorrow. Stay in bed.

○ Yes, Karen.

■ Right. Tea first.

Karen brings an old green raincoat from the cupboard. "My old raincoat. Put it on. It suits you." In the pocket is a heavy old key with a label: "Attic". "Keep it. You are one of number 7 now." You sneeze. In bed with your tea, you see Findus sitting by the key, staring at it for a long time.
